* PROTECTION POLICY

By signing the "Credit Card Agreement" or by verbally acquiescing to it over the phone, or on the Internet (Budget Plans only), you are authorizing the A.I.A. to deduct your Course Fees on a monthly basis from your credit card account. (As per Federal Law, only your monthly Course Fees can be deducted - nothing else - this is for your protection.)

I want to examine the Ashford Institute of Antiques Plan One. The first of the five Plans is shipped to me by prepaid, insured parcel post with the understanding that I may mail it back in five days after I receive it for a full refund of my money, if I am not satisfied, giving my reasons why.

I am to receive:

The complete Ashford Institute of Antiques Home Study Profit and Pleasure Course; including Course in 12 volumes, Free Antique Price Guide, Research Service, Business Kit, Information Bulletin, Newspaper Subscription, Membership Card.

Full examination correction and consultation service and all other privileges accorded students including Free Advisory and Consultation Service for six months after enrollment.

Individual instruction through the Faculty and Consulting Staff who are under the personal supervision of Charles Green, Director of A.I.A.

The Ashford Institute of Antiques Diploma of Graduation, which is to be awarded to me after I have satisfactorily completed the course, completed my course payments, and have fully complied with the terms of this agreement.

I agree to follow the Plan diligently and restrict use of same to myself. If I decide to keep the Plan, I will send payments in accordance with my selection checked below.

All payments are due on a monthly basis and must be kept current, regardless of progress in the course.

*All Course materials are sent in installments, except when payment in full is received, upon which the entire course will be shipped.

TUITION SETTLEMENT POLICY

1. A student shall be given a full refund if cancellation is requested within 5 days of receipt of Plan One, by notifying the school in writing. All materials returned to the school must be accompanied by a Return Receipt, indicating date of mailing, contents enclosed, and signature of sender - failure to provide this may result in loss of refund.

2. If cancellation is made after the 5-day period, the school is entitled to retain a pro-rata share of the Tuition based upon the number of lessons received by the student. The tuition Settlement Policy is activated only when students have received more Course Lesson Materials than they have paid for - tuition payments which have already been made to the Institute will not be reimbursed unless such payments fall within the stated 5-day return policy period of the school. Students who withdraw after the 5-day review period, will be subject to a $50.00 "Withdrawal Fee" in addition to any pro-rated Tuition fees still owed to the Institute by the student.

3. Fees for materials (Texts, Tapes, etc.) will be refunded in full at any time provided that said materials are returned to the school in good condition within 5 days after receipt by the student. Materials showing excessive wear, will not be accepted.

4. If credit is granted to the undersigned, he or she is responsible for payment of the account. I/we do further agree that in the event the account must be placed with a collection agency and/or attorney for collection, the undersigned is responsible for reasonable attorney's fees and/or collection fees and service charges.

5. If a student completes a Course Plan in less than a month, the student will be required to pay the pro-rated amount for the next Course Plan. In addition, if the student's account becomes delinquent by 3 payments or more (consecutively or otherwise), the student will be required to pay the pro-rated amount before the shipping of the next Course Plan.

Notice

The following notice is required under Federal law in all installment contracts. In plain English, it gives you extra protection.
